

Objective 37: Increase the proportion of adolescents who have an annual wellness checkup

Maryland SHIP Vision Area 6: Healthcare Access
Tools, Resources, and Promising Practices updated February 2012

Tool Intended Audience

General Public

Clinicians

Planners

Information, Facts, and Figures

Centers for Disease Control & Prevention—Young Adults

Provides current information on relevant health and wellness topics for young adults.

Adolescent Health Issue Brief

This issue brief provides an overview of adolescent coverage and access to health care

Medical Care for Adolescents

Information for parents and adolescents stressing the importance of

Promising Practices

Coordinated School Health

Provides information about the CDC recommendation to improve adolescent health through schools.

Guidelines for Adolescent Preventive Services

Resources and materials related to adolescent clinical preventive services.

Toolkit

Centers for Disease Control & Prevention—College

Comprehensive website focused on college aged adults and the family. Provides education, resources and links to other resources and toolkits.

The National Partnership for Healthcare Organization

Comprehensive educational tools and recommendations for patients, healthcare providers, hospitals, employers and community groups all of which focus on the patient-provider relationship and engagement to educate patients to be part of the team.

Adolescent Health Care

Provides the basics of adolescent health for providers.

